

GRANDMOTHER TREE SITE OF KERDISTON
CROSS ON LEFT. ROAD TO QUESTWICK

Binding corn

BINDING CORN

Loading a wagon with sheaves c 1900

Lifting sugar beet

SUGAR BEET ^{sugar beet} INTRODUCER
1912

A GROUP OF LIFTERS ON MR KEITH'S FARM
NORWICH MERCURY.

Loading a wagon with sheaves

LOADING CORN ON WAGON

Baling & stacking hay with the help of a traction engine

HARVESTING BARLEY WITH BINDER 1969

GREAT INTERNATIONAL SHOW AT HAMBURG.

FIRST CLASS GREAT SILVER MEDAL.

CHARLES BURRELL,

St. Nicholas' Works, Thetford, Norfolk,

AND

30, Gracechurch Street, London.

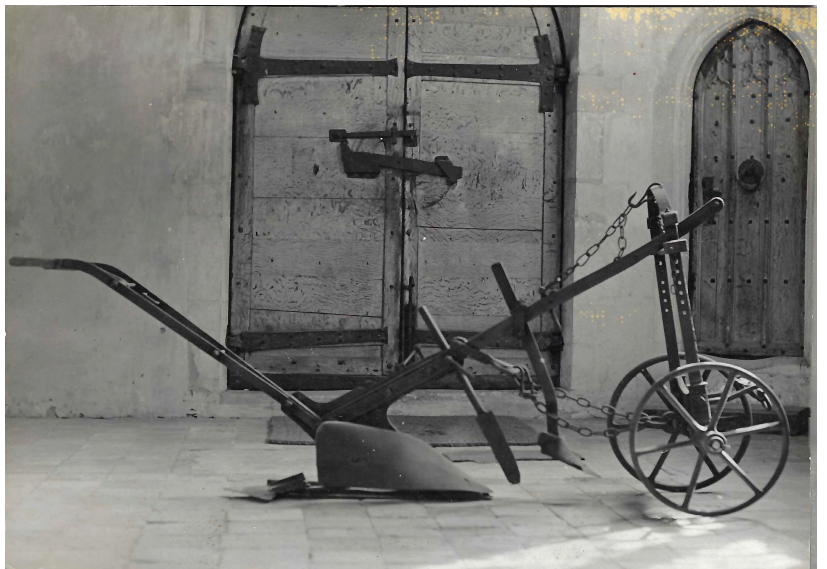

IMPROVED AGRICULTURAL LOCOMOTIVE, which was tried at the above Show, in competition with several others, and for which the FIRST CLASS GREAT SILVER MEDAL was awarded.

Upwards of fifty references can be given to the working of these Engines.

Sole Manufacturer of Traction Engines, fitted with Boydell's Endless Railway. Licensed Manufacturer of Fowler's Patent Steam Ploughing and Cultivating Machinery. Patent Straw Elevators upon the simplest construction. Combined Threshing and Dressing Machines, and all kinds of Barn Machinery supplied at a short notice.

N.B.—Any Portable Engine can be readily altered to a Locomotive.

CHARLES BURRELL, Thetford, Norfolk, and 30, Gracechurch Street, London.

NORFOLK PLOUGH c1920 IN SALL CHURCH

