Dear Mrs Gray,

In October last year I went back to Reepham with my elder son & daughter-in-law whilst staying 4 nights in Norwich. My parents were Dr. & Mrs. Maurice CANE, who lived in what is now called Egusford House and I was the 2nd daughter of their 6 girls. Sadly their 1st & 3rd daughters have died, so at 88 I am now the eldest.

That afternoon in Reepham, for which I have so much affection, I bought a lovely card of the town created by a Lorna Gray.

I have ever since been curious to know if you are related to one of my father's favourite patients, Mrs. Mabel Gray of The Hill House Boston Norwich 76x.

I'm sure there are quite a number of Grays about and do apologise for making this enquiry, if it has nothing to do with you.

I am not sure when, or if, I'll revisit Reepham but if I did and if you were related to Mrs. Habel Gray, it would be good to meet meanwhile, I can just admire your lovely card and wish you all the best of good fortune.

Yours sincerely,

Sheila M. Frackiewicz.
